British Periodical Literature.

REPUBLICATION OF

The London Quarterly Review,

The Edinburgh Review,

The North British Review,

The Westminster Review,

—AND—

Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine.

The wide spread fame of these splendid Periodicals renders it needless to say much in their praise. As literary organs they stand far in advance of any works of a similar stamp now published, while the political complexion of each is marked by a dignity, candor, and forbearance, not often found in works of a party character.

They embrace the views of the three great parties in England—Tory Whig and Radical—"Blackwood" and the "London Quarterly" are Tory, the "Edinburgh Review" Whig, and the "Westminster Review" Radical. The "North British Review" is more of a religious character, having been originally edited by Dr Chalmers and now, since his death being conducted by his son-in-law Dr Hanna, associated with Sir David Brewster. Its literary character is of the very highest order. The "Westminster," though reprinted under that title only is published in England under the title of the "Foreign Quarterly and Westminster," it being in fact a union of the two Reviews formerly published and reprinted under separate titles. It has therefore the advantage by this combination of uniting in one work the best features of both as heretofore issued.

The above Periodicals are reprinted in New York immediately on their arrival by the British steamers in a beautiful clear type on fine white paper, and are faithful copies of the originals. Blackwood's Magazine being an exact fac simile of the Edinburgh Edition.

TERMS.

For any one of the four Reviews,	$3.00 per annum
For any two do	5,00 "
For any three do	7.00 "
For all four of the Reviews	8.00 "
For Blackwood's Magazine,	3.00 "
For Blackwood and three Reviews	9.00 "
For Blackwood and the four Reviews,	10,00 "

Payments to be made in all cases in advance

CLUBBING.

Four copies of any or all the above works will be sent to one address on payment of the regular subscription for three—the fourth copy being gratis.

EARLY COPIES

Our late arrangement with the British publishers of Blackwood's Magazine secures to us early sheets of that work by which we are enabled to place the entire number in the hands of subscribers before any portion of it can be reprinted in any of the American Journals. For this and other advantages secured to our subscribers we pay so large a consideration that we may be compelled to raise the price of the Magazine.

☞ Something may therefore be gained by subscribing early.

The Great Remedy for Gonorrhea

GLEET, Stricture and all analagous complaints, is Dr. DOUGLASS'S ARABIAN PASTE. Dr Douglass is well known having practiced in the principal cities in the Union during the last 40 years. His only reason for introducing the Paste in this public manner, is the consciousness that there are thousands of ill treated complaints in this city—thousands of individuals who are going down to premature graves by taking the miserable drugs of quacks.

Dr D most solemnly affirms that during his practice of forty years this Paste has never, in one single instance failed of effecting a cure in a few days without any change of diet or hindrance from business. He has had some of the most stubborn cases—cases that have resisted the regular course of treatment adopted by our first physicians, for months and even years but after taking the Paste for a few days the angry symptoms disappeared and the patients were discharged, entirely cured.

If the unfortunate instead of drugging themselves with quack nostrums, would purchase only one box of the Arabian Paste we should not see so many emancipated bodies and sallow countenances as we do at the present time.

☞ In case this Paste should fail to effect a cure in the shortest possible time, ten times the price paid for it will be given the purchaser on returning the empty boxes.

For sale only by the original inventor and sole proprietor, Dr PETER G DOUGLASS, at his Office No 55 Union street Boston at $5 per box where he can be confidently consulted on every disease incident to the human frame; and the patient rely upon the most beneficial course of treatment that can possibly be adopted.

Prepared by STEPHEN JEWETT son of the late Dr STEPHEN JEWETT of Rindge N H

Principal Office,—No. 30, India-Street, Boston.

Please read the following certificate of a highly respectable and aged gentleman

RINDGE N H April 1, 1848

To all whom it may concern

I the undersigned do hereby certify that I was acquainted with the late Dr Stephen Jewett from my boyhood up to the time of his death and having been his near neighbor can testify to his medical skill and knowledge in Botany, with hundreds of others now living, and that in the year 1841 I was afflicted with jaundice palpitation of the heart pain in the side and general debility so as to be unable to attend to any business and having a bottle of the late Dr Stephen Jewett's Bitters and recommended the Bitters and Plaster and by their use was permanently cured. Since the above named date, I have used Dr Jewett's medicine with equally good effect as prepared by Stephen Jewett son of the late Dr Stephen Jewett of Rindge N H and I cordially recommend them to the public as safe and invaluable medicines—and being composed entirely of vegetables I think them far better than others for the cure of our climate than mineral compounds or nostrums. Try them and judge from facts and experience. I consider Dr Stephen Jewett's Strengthening Plaster far superior to any external application for the purposes for which it is recommended of any that I have ever known.

EBENEZER BLAKE.

DR STEPHEN JEWETT'S

Health Restoring Bitters.

These Bitters, acting as they do upon the Stomach Liver and Bowels removing all the morbid secretion thereby purifying the blood and invigorating the digestive organs not only cure diseases that already exist, but they also fortify the system against all attacks of disease. It is a common remark among those who have used Dr Jewett's Bitters that they have but little fear of being sick. The remark is strictly true, for while the stomach and bowels are kept in a good condition and the blood pure all the great predisposing causes are removed, and the whole system is fortified against those morbid influences, which under less favorable circumstances would have engendered perhaps fatal disease.

In order that the public may know that they are offered a truly excellent article we append the following certificate which may be seen with numerous others in their original by calling on the proprietor.

BOSTON, May 15 1848

To all whom it may concern — This may certify that I have been for several years troubled with a scrofulous humor which has been very troublesome and was fast undermining my health and had severe pains in the back loss of appetite languor and general debility.

A short time since I commenced taking Dr Jewett's Health Restoring Bitters and in a very short time my humor subsided pain left, my appetite improved, and my health has not been so good for years as at present and I attribute it to Dr Jewett's Health Restoring Bitters.

(MRS) E H RUSSELL, Beach street.

Pulmonary Elixer.

Nearly one third of all the deaths that occur in New England are caused either directly or indirectly by diseases of the Lungs and Chest. Why is this great sacrifice of human life? How happens it that the brightest members of the household promise the hope and support of declining years are mowed down in early life? Who is it that so many families have been made desolate by that fell destroyer Consumption? And how happens it that so many interesting and lovely children are cut down every year by those dread diseases the Quincy and Croup? Is it because these diseases are incurable? This column will tell you these diseases can be cured—if taken in season.

It is true that the disease can be cured with almost absolute certainty—if taken in season. Every body should be aware of this fact and provide themselves with Dr Jewett's Pulmonary Elixer.

The following certificate among numerous others which have been received are appended for the benefit of those who doubt its wonderful efficacy.

WINCHENDON Mass March 10, 1848

Stephen Jewett—Dear Sir—I feel it a duty to you and to the public generally to inform you of all who may have been afflicted as I have that I have been entirely cured of a severe and long continued cough by one bottle of your Pulmonary Elixer—For months I have been a great sufferer. I had pain in my left side, sore throat, constant cough, and raised a good deal of blood or matter. My strength was gone and my flesh was wasting away. I took many things with out benefit and was steadily getting worse till I procured your Pulmonary Elixer which has cured me, and I cheerfully recommend it to all who are troubled with coughs.

Yours truly

A Marvellously strange case—a Family deceived as to the identity of a son and brother.

An action at law was tried in this city on Tuesday and Wednesday last on a charge of obtaining goods under false pretences The action was brought by James Hause Esq of Corinna against Luther Hause of Troy The case excited great interest here on account of the strange and apparently unaccountable state of facts which it developed No one seems able to account for the absolute and entire deception of a whole family, neighbors and school mates, as to the identity of a person after a few years absence We have procured from a friend who was present at the trial some of the leading facts in the case for the purpose of laying them before our readers

It appears that Luther Hause of Troy, son of Seth Hause, now twenty four years of age, was a wild, unrestrained boy, and at any time ready for mischief He has a keen eye, and has been at work about this city for a few years as a common laborer And last summer he imposed upon the family of James Hause Esq of Corinna by claiming to be their long lost son and in the character obtained money and goods to the amount of about one hundred dollars It was for this offense that the present action was brought

James Hause Esq who is an intelligent man, a justice of Peace, and is respected by all who know him—a man of property and strongly attached to his children, testified that he had a son by the name of James Rowland Hause, who left home about three years since in company with a neighbor of his, went to New Bedford where he shipped on a whaling voyage in a vessel by the name of Copia

The first he ever heard of Luther Hause, the defendent was in June last, when three of his neighbors who had know his son Rowland from his boyhood, were in Bangor and saw this young man and asked him if his name was not James Rowland Hause He said it was not, that his name was Luther Hause But they thought they could not mistake the fact, and insisted upon his being Rowland and after much conversation with him, they urged him to return to his father's house with them This he refused to do These men returned home and informed the witness that they had seen and conversed with his son at Bangor and that he appeared to be partially insane or something of the kind and declared that his name was Luther Hause The intelligence brought the witness and his wife immediately to Bangor, where they searched for their son but they returned without finding him, or any person bearing his resemblance The day after the return home of the witness, Mr Roberts, called upon Mr Hause for the purpose of procuring his wagon for a journey to Bangor Mr Hause told him that he found his son Rowland in Bangor to bring him home Mr Roberts returned home, taking with him the young man Luther Hause and then sent for the witness and his wife to come to his house The invitation was at once accepted Luther, the defendant, addressed the witness and called him Father He then turned to Mrs Hause, threw his arms around her neck, kissed her and said, How do you do Mother — Mrs Hause stated that she did not at first fully believe that he was her son He did not look like her son His eyes and hair were not the same color her son's were

Her son had large light blue eyes, light and somewhat curly hair a light complexion and smooth clear skin, and was shorter, thicker, and heavier than Luther who has small black eyes, black, coarse, straight hair swarthy complexion and coarse rough skin

In speaking to Luther she said, can it be possible that this is my long lost son Rowland? He answered yes mother it is me She then said to Luther if you are my son you have got a scar on your knee He pulled up his pants and showed a scar on his knee She then said my son had a scar on his breast that was burnt in Mr Andrew's shop He pulled away his shirt bosom and shew a scar on his breast She then said my son Rowland had a scar on his neck under the ear He held up his neck and showed a scar in that place on his neck She then said, one of my son's toes lapped over the other—he said, one of mine is so

The young man then went to the house of Mr House, and Mrs Hause asked him to show her the room where he used to sleep, he went up the stairs to the room where her son slept, and after some hesitation threw himself upon a bed standing in the room and said, this is my old bed Mr Hause and his wife were then fully satisfied that he was their son and provided him with clothes &c He remained at their house some five months and the longer he stayed the more they were satisfied he was their son He acted strangely and did no work Mr Hause stated that he believed him to be his son just as much as he believed his wife to be his wife He said that some years ago there was a negro travelling around the country relating a vision that he had, and said no one could learn it But that his son Rowland heard the negro repeat the vision twice and learned it One day Mr Hause said to Luther do you recollect the negro vision? I declare said he I have not thought of it since I went away and I dont know as I can repeat half of it He then commenced and repeated the most of it This confirmed in their minds the fact that it was their son Rowland — Mrs Hause stated also that he acted strangely, at times He would pray, sing, swear, and ask blessings When she would ask him questions about the past, he would say, You have been told and believe that I am not Rowland and I will not tell you any thing about it But her strong affection for her son blinded her eyes and made her believe that this young man was her son

Mr Hause stated that some years ago he sold a man a yoke of oxen and went to Harmony in company with Rowland to see about them — This young man one day told him all about going to Harmony with him after the oxen

Miss Rebecca Hause daughter of James Hause testified that she kept school last summer in Brewer; that Luther Hause, the prisoner, came to the house where she boarded in company with a neighbor who introduced him to her as Mr Clark. She took no notice of him. This was on the fourth day of July last in the forenoon.—In the afternoon of the same day she came to Bangor and stopped at the house of her uncle, John W Prince Esq While there this same neighbor called, and began to talk with her about Rowland He asked her if she thought she should know him if she saw him She said she thought she would He then pointed to Luther Hause, who was some distance from the house, sitting with his back towards her, and asked her if that was Rowland? She said it looked like him in the back He then called Luther into the house, and introduced him to her as Rowland Hause, her brother He said he called upon her in Brewer without telling who he was to see if she would know him He said that he knew this man to be her brother Rowland, for he had talked with him She still doubting, said, If you are my brother you have a scar on the head when I hurt you when you were a little boy She left of his head and found a scar He then told her he had been in Bangor some time Why, said she, have you not been home? Because, said he, I am poor and my clothes are poor and I am ashamed to go home Sometimes I go by the name of Luther and sometimes by the name of John Hause

She testified that she thought he was her brother and made him promise to go home He in return made her promise not to send word home to her father that he was here She kept her promise

Rebecca is a fine looking intelligent girl and it is astonishing that she could have been so deceived When Luther first called upon her he had not been in Corinna but after he had been in Corinna a little time, he one day asked Mrs Hause where his watch was

She answered that Rebecca had it, but remarked it is not by ways for you have not paid it She testified that when her son Rowland was at home, she told him that if he would mark for her till he was 21 years of age she would give him the watch He went away before he was 21 and consequently had not paid for the watch She therefore, supposing that he was Rowland, said, you have not paid for the watch but you may have it if you want it After being at Corinna some time, he told Mr Hause that he had some money due him in Bangor, and he wanted to collect it Mr Hause let him have three dollars and he left for this city While here he called upon his sister Rebecca, got the watch and about a dollar in money of her and went to Thomaston, as he said After a while he returned to Corinna again and went to school a few days—was quite unsteady and was taken sick While he was sick Mr Hause and family did everything for him that they could After he got better he started again for Bangor, Mr Hause sending one of his daughters with a horse and carriage to bring him part of the way to the city A few days after he left Mr Hause got a letter, stating that his son Rowland was sick at Pearsons hotel in this city Mr Hause took his horse and carriage and came to Bangor, paid the prisoner's bills at Pearsons and took him home to Corinna again

It was proved that he had procured papers in the name of James Rowland Hause, of Bangor It was also proved that he had, while at Corinna, stamped the name of James Rowland Hause upon various articles of clothing

Several of the neighbors of Mr Hause, took this young man to be Rowland Hause Young men who had been schoolmates with Rowland talked with Luther about past times, and became convinced that he was Rowland Hause — At last a Mr Dow came to Corinna, saw Luther and said that he knew this young man, and his name was Luther Hause, and no mistake and that he belonged in Troy

Thomas R Gardiner also recognized him as Luther Hause, and said he had lived by him 17 years James Hause then began to doubt the fact of Luther Hause being his son, and in order to settle the dispute existing in the family and the community, as to his identity, a warrant was issued by Volney A Sprague, Esq, against Luther, for obtaining goods under false pretences He was arrested and examined before S K White, Esq, of Exeter Mr Seth Hause, of Troy, was summoned and appeared at the trial, and there recognized the prisoner as his son

During the trial there was great excitement, and about 400 persons were present and apparently the most of them in favor of Luther, believing him to be Rowland The Justice sometimes the warrant and upon the adjournment of the Court the sovereign mob hustled the prisoner out of the way

A warrant was issued against Luther Hause et als, for conspiracy to obtain goods under false pretences That cause was tried before Justice Sprague, who discharged them

Justice White had issued a mittimus against Luther Hause, for want of bonds, and they brought him before the District Court

The case was conducted on the part of the State by the County Attorney, Mr Waterhouse For the prisoner, Abner Knowles, David Barker, of Exeter, and V A Sprague, of Corinna Mr Knowles argued the case very ably and with a good deal of ingenuity, and contended that Hause and his family had deceived the young man instead of his deceiving them—that when he was first seen in Bangor he stated distinctly that his name was Luther Hause—that they dragged him to Corinna, and forced him to say that he was James Rowland Hause—there was no pretence that he was any one else than Luther Hause, and that James Hause, if he had opened his eyes to the light around him, might have known that he was Luther Hause The Judge charged very strongly against the prisoner The Jury after being out a very few minutes came into court with a verdict of guilty

We understand that the Jury, upon the first ballot were unanimous for conviction We also understand that James Hause learned some time since, that his son, James Rowland, was in California, to which place he deserted from the vessel he sailed in, and yet he was made to believe that this young man was his son — Truth is, indeed, sometimes stranger than fiction

The young man is now in Jail awaiting the sentence of the Judge, and is apparently quite happy When he first went to Jail the prisoners there had a barrel of skewers, which they had made to sell to the butchers of our city

He proposed to gamble for the lot, and borrowed 12 skewers to commence with. At it he went, and in less than one hour after he entered Jail, he had won the whole barrel, and sold them for $1.50. The prisoners think he knows how to play 'poker' and that he is 'one of 'em.'

☞Joseph Mitchell a Penobscot Indian aged 25 years, was arrested on Friday by Constable Walker on a charge of the murder of his father on Tuesday last. He was examined before the Police Court on Saturday and was committed to await his trial at the supreme Court in June next. This same Mitchell we learn, has been in the N Hampshire State Prison for three years for setting fire to buildings

John Mitchell and Elizabeth Peol two Indian witnesses were ordered to recognize as witnesses and were committed for want of bail

☞Benj S Brown was brought before the Police Court by Constable Walker on a charge of passing counterfeit bills on the Bank of Cumberland He was ordered to give bonds in the sum of three hundred dollars, which he failed to do and was committed to jail

The religious services at the Hammond Street Church last evening on the occasion of the departure of a portion of our citizens for California, were highly interesting We intend to give a full report in our paper, tomorrow

☞Elijah L Hamlin Esq, delivered a highly interesting and valuable lecture on Friday evening before the Mechanics' Association on the Islands and Islanders of Maine It was listened to with great attention, and we hope to be able, in a few days to give a sketch of it in our columns Mr Hamlin, by the lectures which he has given has afforded much pleasure to the Association, and set a worthy example to the professional men of our city to work for the benefit of others

☞We are assured that the Lyceum is not dead yet, as some had supposed, but that Rev. Mr Judd, of Augusta, has engaged to lecture on the Dramatic element in the Bible Hon Horace Greeley has also engaged to deliver two or three lectures soon after the adjournment of Congress Mr Greeley is also to lecture at Augusta and Bath.

☞John Low, Esq had at the City Market last week, several very large hogs, raised in Kennebec county, in the town of Mercer The number of round hogs brought to our market this winter is less than usual, and the stock of Bangor packed pork will be very light

The records of the General Land Office, it is said, show an average issue of 9,000 patents per month since the proclamation of peace with Mexico, or 200 patents per day So great is the accumulation of these that 100 000 unattested deeds are now remaining for signature

☞John P Parker, his wife Maria and Joseph L Smith have been arrested in New York for passing counterfeit one dollar bills on the Freemans Bank, Boston, signed Sol Piper, president, Jeremy Drake, cashier

☞Col Croghan is dead, the telegraph reports to the contrary, notwithstanding New Orleans papers of the 9th confirm the melancholy fact

☞Mr Howard the talented musical genius will give one more of his highly interesting and popular concerts at Market Hall on Wednesday evening next

☞Mr Hopkins' Juvenile Singing School at Market Hall on Wednesday and Saturday afternoons, is getting along finely By and by they will probably be able to give some fine concerts

☞The sleighing is now truly splendid It never was better The wood-haulers and lumbermen generally are improving it.

Good Poetry we admire greatly, particularly when it conveys a sound moral The following is a perfect gem in its way Our readers will doubtless appreciate it.

'The man that doth no paper take,
Grudging two dollars once a year,
Will never a good husband make,
Because his wife can never know what is going on so well abroad, and his children will very ignorant appear'

The last line is rather too long for good jingle but the moral is sublime

There is no greater difficulty in educating children than any relating to educating them to work. No man or woman is fully or properly educated if not accustomed to manual labor.

Mr Henly said, in continuation that he was in favor of reform and showed that the house had a saving this session over last, although he admitted that the printing in many respects had been badly done. A Load of Editors.

The people of the United States, the Forest and Stream, and Cultivator, saw such a sight last week, as no other town ever saw before It was a full load of live editors with their better halves and horse mothers, drawn in 3 carriages a splendid new 12 cent sleigh, with seats cushioned and white shingled for 16 drawn by four elegant brown and glossy steers richly harnessed,—the whole team costing no less than $1200 His respect for the Press induced him to invite all our town Editors and their families to a ride to Gardiner, and we had only one fear all the while—that, all the talent and learning of Augusta being carried off, the town would sink into barbarism quite too soon We reached home again, however, in season to revive the light of knowledge Jamison is the keeper of the Kennebec House, and his dinner, Rinker, is a first-rate Whig.

To all who are afflicted with Asthma.

I have at different times been afflicted with severe colds, which produced in me what the Asthma. I have on three occasions used DR. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY Two years ago I was quite sick, so much so that I could not rest at night. I procured of the agent in this city a bottle of this Balsam of Wild Cherry Before I had taken the whole of it I felt relieved—I continued taking it, until I had used three or four bottles, which completely cured me The next season I took another severe cold, and immediately resorted to this Balsam, and a part of one bottle had the desired effect. I therefore cheerfully recommend my friends and all others who need it, to try this medicine for their coughs and colds, and particularly the Asthma.

Respectfully yours WM McGRATH.

SPITTING BLOOD

New York, April 26, 1847

DR TOWNSEND—I am happy to inform you that your Sarsaparilla has carried me through Providence of any one living. I have for several years had a bad cough for the winter and worse. At last I found it necessary to consult a physician, who pronounced my disease consumption, and told me I could live but a short time, and there was no hope for me. I then commenced taking your Sarsaparilla, and before I had taken one bottle I found myself relieved. I continued taking it, and I am now able to walk about the city. I have no blood, and my cough has left me. You are welcome to this statement, as I am willing to do anything that I can to recommend your Sarsaparilla to the afflicted. Yours respectfully,

JAMES CUMMINGS

FITS! FITS! FITS!

Dr Townsend—Dear Sir—I was troubled with fits for the space of two years, and during that time I was under the care of two physicians, but received no benefit from them. I was induced to try your Sarsaparilla, and after taking two bottles I found myself relieved. I have taken three bottles more, and have not had a fit for seven months. I consider myself entirely cured. I am willing to make this statement, as I think it my duty to do so, as I was afflicted so long. Yours respectfully,

JAMES BUTLER, Jr
